

2020 Interfaith Justice Series

Moving from Trauma to Healing

What is Trauma?

Recognizing the Signs & Symptoms

March 4 at Faith Lutheran Church

Dr. John E. Queener, Program Director, Minority Behavioral Health &
Professor of Counseling Psychology, The University of Akron

Trauma & the Cycle of Poverty

March 11 at New Hope Baptist Church

Josh Johnson, Coalition on Homelessness and Housing in Ohio

Violence Induced Trauma

March 18 at St Hilary Catholic Church

Tia Payne, Executive Director, Legacy 31

The Path to Healing

March 25 at Temple Israel

Panel Moderated by Rev. Sandy Selby, D.Min., MBA

Kathryn Ress, LISW-S, Akron Interfaith Immigration Advocates

Renee Romine, Kent State University - Resiliency Training & Trauma

Dr. Lathardus Goggins II, Ed.D., Consultant, Applied Academic Solutions

6:00 p.m. Gathering

6:15 p.m. Meal

7:00 p.m. Worship

7:30 p.m. Presentation

Please mark your calendars for this opportunity to make a difference in our larger community.

Remember to RSVP
by calling your congregation's office or registering on-line at <http://sthilarychurch.org/2020-interfaith-justice-series/>

